Fast Adjustment

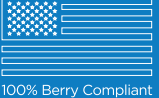

The GMT Sling is the answer for even more adjustability than a Vickers Sling. The GMT or "Give Me Tail" Sling is a classic "Tailed sling" that can be cinched up as small as the user by pulling the tail through the locking mechanism and then loosened with a pull tab on the same lock. A longtime favorite of special operations users for more control of the weapon during non-shooting times, the GMT Sling brings that same control but with more comfort, durability, and ease of use than currently available tailed slings.
